Announcements

Gen2Rev is almost here!

The Co-Pastors are very excited to welcome you to our every-Sunday classes! We begin on Sunday, October 11th in the Fireside Room at 10:50am

- No prior Bible knowledge needed!
- We plan to give you a sense of the overall story of the Bible by the end of May 2027
- Taught by Co-Pastors Jill & Daniel, Professor Hans Wiersma, our Outreach Coordinator Anna Jeide-Detweiler, and Church in Society Chair, Ian Wriesner

- If you plan to be with us, please consider purchasing a study bible for the year. A study bible has notes underneath the scripture text, as well as things like maps and other introductions to each book of the bible.

Over the course of the sessions you will be writing your own commentary in your bible, so a good study bible will be add to your understanding and knowledge!

The newest edition of our Lutheran-Christian bible is called the 'NRSVue,' which stands for 'New Revised Standard Version, Updated Edition.' If you can't find one of those, no worries. You can also look for Bibles that are 'NRSV,' 'NIV,' or really any other translation. In our eyes, all translations are helpful to have in a class like this because they show different ways scholars and denominations make choices to interpret scripture.

SAP History this Tuesday

On Tues., Oct. 13, 7:00 p.m., Kristin Anderson will present the work of Charles Aldrich here in our sanctuary. In the 1890s and early 1900s, Aldrich was an important figure in St. Anthony Park. He was an early professor on the St. Paul campus and designed many of its original buildings. In the 1890s, he also did considerable work on the State Fairground.

Presentations remain free, but donations help offset program costs (live and online tip jars available). Anyone unable to attend in person can watch the presentations live online, with a recording available for one week after Oct. 13, on the SAPLC YouTube channel at bit.ly/Sap-history. The channel can also be accessed from saplc.org via the Worship tab and livestream link.

Save the Date: St. Anthony Park Lutheran Church Women's Retreat

February 19–21, 2027

In a troubled world, where can we find space for reflection, connection, spiritual renewal, and laughter?

Mark your calendar for a weekend of reflection, renewal, and connection for the women of SAPLC. Join us Friday evening through Sunday morning at The Village at Shores of St. Andrew, a peaceful retreat center on Lake Andrew near New London, Minnesota. The weekend will offer space for meaningful conversation and reflection, shared meals, indoor and outdoor activities, informal Sunday worship, and both guided and unstructured time for personal contemplation for women of all ages. The cost for a single occupancy room (2 nights of lodging + meals) will be $245 total, and the cost for double occupancy will be $205. Each room has a private bathroom and heating.

Our retreat theme will be "Spiritual Longing in a Troubled World." The weekend will be facilitated by the Rev. Mary Halvorson, retired pastor of Grace University Lutheran Church in Minneapolis, who has led women's retreats for more than 35 years. We hope you will set aside this weekend to step away from everyday demands, connect with other women in the congregation, and explore how we can nurture our spiritual lives in challenging times. Sign-up will open in September.
